

INDIANS' FRIEND.

D. C. Tillotson, Who Died Last Night, Honored by Them.

Was Once in Charge of Topeka's Public Schools.

D. C. Tillotson, of 621 Fillmore street, an early settler in Topeka and prominent lawyer, died this morning at 1:30 o'clock. The immediate cause of his death was acute heart difficulty, but he has been in poor health for the last two years.

D. C. Tillotson, Prominent Topeka Attorney, Who Died This Morning.

Mr. Tillotson held many positions of trust after coming to Topeka in 1879. In 1881 he became superintendent of city schools, which position he held for six years. Under his administration many important improvements were made in the school system. He served as city councilman, city attorney, and general attorney for the Annuity Union. He was chairman of the Silver-Republican national committee. As a member of various lodges Mr. Tillotson had hosts of friends. He was one of the honored members of Sunflower camp, Modern Woodmen, having held responsible positions among which was membership in the national appeals and grievance committee, and the chairmanship of the committee on head officers reports. He was a Mason for many years. As a member of the Sons of Veterans, of which he was a past commander of the department of Kansas, and judge advocate, he made many addresses, both in this and other states. Mr. Tillotson was a friend of the poor man. Frequently he would help a man who was without friends or money, and he recently got out of his sick bed to attend to such a case. He was unusually successful in settling cases out of court.

Helped the Indians. The Pottawatomie Indians looked upon Mr. Tillotson as a father. He was their friend, counselor and attorney, and made many trips to Washington, D. C., in their interests. When the chief of the Pottawatomie tribe died, the Indians gave the tribal peace pipe to Mr. Tillotson for safe keeping. The pipe had been a possession of the tribe ever since they became a tribe. Mr. Tillotson was born in Warren county, Indiana, March 11, 1852. His family moved to Kansas in 1866 and settled in Jefferson county. It was in 1879 that Mr. Tillotson came to Topeka. He was married in 1883 to Belle D. Rudolph. In 1887 he was admitted to the bar. He was a lover of poetry, and occasionally wrote poetry himself. He was a student of the Bible, and wrote a treatise on the poetry of the Bible.

Members of the family who survive him are his wife, one son, Luther R. Tillotson, and two daughters, Miss Helen and Miss Margaret. Luther Tillotson arrived in Topeka from Phoenix, Arizona, Friday evening.

M. JAURES KILLED

Noted French Socialist Leader Shot by an Assassin.

Two Bullets Strike Him as He Sits at Table.

Paris, Aug. 1.—Jean Leon Jaurès, the noted Socialist leader, was assassinated last night while dining in a small restaurant near the bourse. The assassin was arrested, but refused to disclose his identity. Later he was identified as Raoul Villain, 29 years old, said to be the son of the clerk of the civil courts at Rheims.

Mon. Jaurès, Leader of the Socialists in the French Chamber of Deputies, Who Was Assassinated Friday Evening.

The minister of the interior, Louis Malvy, on learning of the crime, left the meeting of the council and ordered precautions against demonstrations. M. Jaurès was seated at a table near an open window facing the Rue Montmartre, chatting with several Socialist deputies and editors of L'Humanité. As though by prearrangement, the curtain covering the window was lightly brushed aside and a hand holding a revolver was thrust through. Before M. Jaurès could move he received two bullets in the back of the head. Without uttering even an exclamation he fell forward, dead, with his head on the table. The shots startled diners and passersby and the assassin seized his pocket. The police rescued him from the crowd, which shouted, "Assassin! Death to the assassin!"

"I did it because Jaurès fought the three first years (the three years military law). He fought France."

FOR SENATOR?

Major Brown Predicts the Way the Race Will Finish.

Puts Himself and Farrelly at Head—Doster at End.

Farrelly or Brown, Sapp, Doster or Neely, is the way the Democratic senatorial candidates will finish in the state wide primaries next Tuesday, according to W. L. (Ironjaw) Brown, the prediction of the Kingman man, who has perhaps visited in more counties than any one other candidate, puts Sapp positively in third place and plays Neely to finish fourth or fifth.

With a heavy farmer vote in the primary, Brown is confident that he will win the senatorial nomination. The fight for first place, he says, is between himself and Hugh P. Farrelly of Chaney.

"The first place will go to either Mr. Farrelly or myself," said Brown. "If the farmer vote is out, Mr. Farrelly will be the second man. Third place I will concede to Colonel Sapp, who is much stronger than many candidates are willing to concede. His views on prohibition and woman suffrage appeal to a certain per cent of the Democratic party. Fourth place is hard to figure between Mr. Neely and Judge Doster. Neely will get the postoffice vote of the state for which he cannot only thank himself, but Senator Thompson and some of the Democratic congressmen. Judge Doster will have the votes from the old line Populist and Democrats who are socialistically inclined."

"Of the ones who are in the running and some of the Democratic congressmen, the nominee will be found," continued Brown, "I am ready to do exactly what they would be willing to do should I be successful—pull off my coat and work for the nominee."

TODAY'S MARKET REPORTS.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—WHEAT—Trading today showed the effect of the market safety, got by the monthly settlement without distress. There were no failures and this caused an easier feeling. Reports that Italy had decided to stand neutral caused a somewhat pronounced falling in values. The opening ranged from 4 1/2 to 1 1/2 lower but most of the loss was afterward regained. Reports that foreign built ships would be allowed to take American registry, and that France, Germany, Austria and Italy would remove the import duties, led to considerable buying. The close was firm, 1/2 to 1 c net higher. CORN—Weather chiefly affected corn. Spatches telling of a heavy rain, after opening 1/2 off to 1 1/2 higher quotations advanced moderately. The market was strong with gains of 1/2 to 1/2 c net. OATS—Oats quiet. The market, however, soon hardened in sympathy with corn. PROVISIONS—Scarcity of offers caused provisions to become notably firm. First of corn was 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 and there was a riot later.
